

August 2017, Vol. 39, No. 8

Thank You To all Skippers and Crew!!

From Your Cruising Committee

We are so thrilled that we have had such wonderful participation so far this season.....and we are at the half-way mark. So if you haven't been sailing as much as you would like or still have not joined in on the fun, start NOW!! Sign up early, sign up often.

Aug 9, 23, and 26 – still time to get in on the popular mid-week sails and daysails!!

Aug 12/13 – This is our annual membership meeting and all members are welcome to attend the meeting and dinner, free of charge. If you would like to sail to Pirates Cove and walk up to the meeting, please be sure to sign up for the "cruise/meeting." Skippers are responsible to book and pay for their slips, but we will be happy to offer you crew from the list of registered members.

Aug 19/20 – An all-time favorite with SOS!!! The Appetizers and Desserts cruise this year will head up the Severn River to Maynadier Creek. Deadline is August 8, so don't delay.

Sept 1-4 – Another four-day sail!! This time we are heading north. Friday night in Worton Creek; Saturday in the lovely Tidewater Marina in Havre de Grace; Sunday night is Skipper's Choice (maybe Bodkin Creek??). Don't miss this one. Skippers need to call Tidewater to reserve your slip for 9/2.

So thank you.....and please sign up early. Nice words to hear? One of the reasons this club has lasted for 39 years is the kindness and consideration our members have for each other. It all works when everyone cooperates with some simple courtesies.

- Crew, please don't wait until the last minute to sign up for a weekend. Late sign-ups only make the work of the coordinator more difficult. They want to place everyone and late registrations make for more work.

- Skippers, when you have been offered crew, please call them/email them/send carrier pigeon ASAP. Let the coordinator know quickly if crew has declined. This allows time to move crew around to offer you someone else.
- Eager Crew member, when you have been contacted by the skipper, respond IMMEDIATELY. If you wait and don't respond, you could lose your spot on the cruise. Responding promptly gives you more time to plan your meals, get that pedicure, etc.
- If you have accepted to be part of the "crew" on a boat, please be mindful that they are expecting you to arrive on time and ready to go sailing. We have been hearing of crew showing up late, unprepared or not showing up at all. This spoils the fun for everyone! So plan accordingly for travel and traffic.
- Crew and skippers, when you are in a raft (circle or linear), please be aware of your surroundings and "mind your manners." When crossing another boat, please don't cross through the cockpit unless invited. Our protocol has always been to cross around the bow of the boat. Also, remember that not all skippers allow red wine on board, so be cautious and aware. Be careful, one hand for you and one for the boat! And say Thank You!!!
- An SOS party or raft up is NOT the time to overindulge in alcohol. We are still getting on and off boats and are in a situation that requires dexterity, clear thinking and agility. Imbibe responsibly.

See you on the water,

*Carole and Meeps
Cruising co-chairs*

VIEW FROM THE BRIDGE

What a wonderful sailing season we are having! Week after week of boats, skippers, crew, and fun! There are two more four-day weekend sails to look forward to, Seafood Feast and Party to start the month of August, and beautiful fall weather to enjoy very soon.

The month of August also begins the transition time with our Board and Committees. The Nominating Committee is forming a list of Board nominees who will be introduced at the Town Hall Meeting in Galesville on August 12th. This is also another sailing opportunity with skippers offering their boats for a sail into the Pirates Cove Marina. Our new Board nominees will have a bio/write up in the September Whisker Pole and voting will open mid-September. Read up; listen up; ask around and cast an informed vote for this year's 4/9<sup>ths</sup> of the Board.

Do you want to learn more about how the club works before taking a term on the Board? Share your interest with a Committee member. Choose an activity you enjoy and contact that Chair. Each month at our Board meetings, a number of Committee Chairs share updates and have an opportunity to receive input on decisions and ideas. I am so grateful for all of their contributions; often more than just for their committee's role, they have ideas and knowledge about many areas of the SOS club's activities. At this time, we have several Committee Chairs who have been in their role for many years and/or "stepped up" when we had an opening and a need, so we have several roles opening up this fall. Most of the current Chairs have already said they are glad to mentor the new person in the role; this is your club - a volunteer club - and will work well when we all work together. So, if you have been waiting for the right time - it is now! I personally encourage you to join with a friend and consider co-chairing. That has been the most fun for me each time I took a position over the years.

All that being said, in the words of Uncle Sam, "We need YOU!" SOS will benefit from your voice, your ideas, your energy.

I look forward to seeing you at Town Hall and throughout the fall sailing season.

Janet

Unofficial notes July 6, 2017 Board Meeting

Official May minutes will be posted on the SOS web site when approved in August by the Board of Directors.

Commodore: Review of Action Log.

Vice Commodore: Preparations are complete for the Town Hall Meeting.

Treasurer: Presented final P&L and Budget statements. Will send each chair information pertaining to their committee in preparation for next year's budget.

Bareboat: Club wide email, with attached waiver, was sent May 30th announcing February 2018 trip to BVI. A survey will be sent to membership approximately June 7, 2017 regarding choices for a Fall 2018 bareboat trip. John McDonald and Michael Sommers will coordinate a fall 2018 Bareboat trip in either San Juan Islands or Lake Champlain. Sandy Rosswork has resigned. Kathy Haven will be the new Bareboat chair.

Brunches: List of dates for future Brunches was provided.

Cruising: The season is moving forward. We are gaining a lot of interest in the Labor Day 4 day cruise, as well as good registrations for the Seafood feast. Thanks to Kathy Haven for her diligence in posting the "blasts"; it seems that is the only way to spur on registrations. Looking for a Cruising Chair for 2018!!!

Database: The e-list used by the skipper members of the club has been subject to spam messages being posted to the list. After consulting with MemberClicks, Chair has concluded the spam emails are the result of a compromised email account. He contacted the member involved and requested they change their password to see if that stops the spam. He also set the skippers e-list to moderator mode to stop the spam email from reaching the list. The chair submitted a request as part of the 2018 Database budget for the necessary funds to hire a web administrator by approximately March 2018.

Education: Anne Arundel Community College has been reserved for March 10, 2018 Spring Training.

First Mates: First Mates Cruise is in the final stages for our July 15/16 outing with Alex Doyle taking the lead and Bev Nash as the coordinator. First Mates and Emeritus will be submitting Whisker Pole articles to bring to light some of what First Mates do. John Parsons is working with potential First Mate Candidates to encourage them to finish their application information.

Membership: The "New Member BBQ Chats" was renamed and revised to "What's the Scoop" event. The August Whisker Pole will feature a new column referred to as the "New Member Corner" and will highlight a new member each month. Soon an informational sheet titled "FAQs for New Members" will be included to the new member packet

Newsletter: The July 20-page Whisker Pole mailed to 299 members, 33 Happy Hour coordinators and five extra for "lost copies" were printed at a cost of $1,014.47 which was $3.06 per copy.

Public Relations: No chair. No Report.

Safety: Articles and information about safety issues have been sent to SOS 'Net and appropriate committee chairs.

Skippers' Advisory:

Social: Crabs & Crab Cakes Fest, "Summer Fun," is on schedule for August 5th. Snow Ball Awards Gala, December 2, is on schedule to be held at Double Tree. Gretchen Young will be Emcee and Band will be Just Us. The June Polynesian Luau / 39th SOS Anniversary party was a big smash and under budget. Again, thank you to John McDonald for stepping up to haul the large items back to storage. DNR party was delightful and successful and also under budget.

Call for Regional Thanksgiving Dinner Hosts

We are looking for volunteers to host the Regional Thanksgiving Dinners on November 18th. You may have wanted to contribute to SOS activities, but due to a lack of time have not done so.

This is the perfect opportunity to take on a fun event with a limited commitment. These gatherings are always a great feast and good fun. If you have not participated, here's how it works.

Guests contribute a dish to share and $15 to cover the cost of beverages, tableware, decoration, turkey, etc. The host/ess decides: how many to host and the start time.

To register guests must send a check to Kitty St. Romain who coordinates the guest lists with the hosts, and the hosts then invite the guests. It couldn't be easier or more fun.

If you would like to host or have a question about the experience, please contact Kitty St. Romain by September 30: k.st.romain@comcast.net.

Hospice Cup Regatta - September 16th

Hospice Cup, a unique charity regatta, is a cooperative effort of Hospice Cup, Inc., Eastport Yacht Club, Annapolis Yacht Club, and multiple hospices serving the Maryland, D.C., and Northern Virginia areas where most racers live and work. ## Why Become a First Mate?

A Personal Story by Lorraine Fassett

Updated Original from June 2007 Whisker Pole

I hear the above frequently in SOS, "Why become a first mate?" A variety of reasons are given not to join from "too much hassle" to "too much responsibility", from "I don't have time" to "why bother?" For each of the 56 [currently 18] first mates (FM), obviously there were a variety of reasons to why attempt such a goal. This article addresses the reasons of only one of those persons.

Prior to moving to Maryland I had my sailing experiences on my 14' and 19' sloop-rigged daysailers. I sailed on a small lake in northern New Jersey and on various bays of southern New Jersey. Once I got a taste of sailing on the Chesapeake Bay I knew I wanted to do more cruising and on bigger boats. I finally found SOS in 1989.

I was a crewmember for a long time, gradually sailing more and more weekends and also on extended cruises. I learned so much from many excellent skippers. Experienced crew and first mates added to my knowledge. I attended Fireside Chats, Spring Training each year and as many of the Saturday educational seminars as possible. I wanted more experiences and more sailing expertise and I finally decided that the SOS First Mate program offered just that. Doing the Prospective First Mate Self-evaluation truly gave me insight as to where to begin.

Even though I had taken Basic Navigation at Spring Training and at Saturday seminars, I needed more time to absorb all that information and so I took the US Coast Guard Advanced Coastal Piloting course. Since I knew that I really didn't understand diesel engines I signed up for the 2-day course that Chris Oliver offered. It was more advanced than I wanted at the time but it was a beginning. I bought books: Chapman's Piloting, Reeds Nautical Companion and Nigel Calder's Marine Diesel Engines to name a few.

The self-evaluation also helped to identify seamanship techniques that I had rarely or never done and those that I knew I needed to hone. During cruises, I would ask various skippers if I could do certain tasks. Some skippers offered these opportunities; Dee Doyle had another crewmember and I practice sailing with her Gennaker one day during an extended cruise. On another, Bert Willett had me help him bleed his engine while bobbing around in a lot of chop. All of this helped increase my knowledge and self-confidence.

However, I knew that there were still things I had never done, such as pulling up to a dock and bringing a boat alongside another boat. Lynn Gilley and Ian Sanderson gave me that opportunity on their boat, Venus, on a First Mate weekend and what fun it was! That spring weekend, devoted to first mates and potential FMs, gave me a huge boost toward feeling ready to try out for that SOS FM designation.

I asked to be put on the list for FM checkouts. I had to think through how I would feel if I didn't pass. I finally decided that my ego would survive and that the whole process would offer many experiences that would be valuable to me and any future sailing that I might do.

The First Mate checkouts were true learning experiences and I was so pleased to become a FM. The opportunities that followed were many. I enjoyed sailing with skippers new to SOS and passing on our traditions and procedures. I liked helping skippers work with newer members to pass their Basic Skills. I continued to learn from skippers and crew.

I do believe that FMs are ambassadors for SOS and our enthusiasm is passed on to new members. Being a part of the camaraderie of the other FMs, particularly during the yearly FM cruises and at our annual FM meeting/party, all add to my enjoyment, education and appreciation.

SOS and the First Mate Program gave me the experiences, much of the education, the self-confidence and the passion for sailing that enabled me to take the next step of buying a boat and becoming an SOS skipper. At first, I was a partner in owning my boat, and on those weekends that I did not have use of it I often sailed as a FM. Then owning Cinnamon Bay fully, I sailed as a FM hardly at all. However, what I have learned from the First Mate process did not leave me.

The promotion of SOS, its focus on sailing and safety, a love of the Bay and its tributaries, and the importance of my SOS "family" are a part of me. To say that all of this has enhanced my life is such an understatement. I can't imagine what my retirement would have been like without it; certainly not as full, challenging and definitely not as much fun.

SOS BVI 2018 BAREBOAT CRUISE

Feb 2 through Feb 10 (7 days) or Feb 2 through Feb 13 (10 days)

Where: The British Virgin Islands (BVI), departing from the Moorings/Sunsail base in Road Town, Tortola, BVI. The BVI are a perennial SOS winter getaway warm water favorite — many SOS members have enjoyed going back to the BVI multiple times. The sailing affords line-of-sight navigation and consistent trade winds, making for a low-stress sailing experience. The BVI provide a multitude of delightful beaches and snorkeling opportunities. Favorite spots include The Baths, Norman, Peter, and Cooper Islands, Gorda Sound, and Jost van Dyke (with a choice of casual beach bars). We plan (as usual) to have a dinner/dance at the Bitter End Yacht Club on Virgin Gorda.

When: February 2 (Friday) through February 10 or 13 (7 and 10 day options plus evening start).

Boats being chartered: Initially, we have reserved 6 boats, three Sunsail 41 foot 3 cabin Premier, and three 47 foot 3 cabin Premier. ("Premier" means "newer.") If the response warrants, we will add additional boats, larger or smaller to accommodate skipper preferences, possibly including a catamaran...

Crew Costs: The amount each crew will deposit with SOS is basically calculated as boat cost (including personal insurance of $125) plus an admin fee of $60 plus a contingency deposit of $140. In the absence of contingency expenses, following the trip each crew should receive a refund on the order of $150 -- actually more for the less expensive smaller boats, and for boats that sail with 6 crew instead of 5.

The totals to be deposited by crew are $1800 for 7 days, $2400 for 10 days.

Crew payments are due as follows (calculated based on the 47 foot boats):

- $500 with the crew application form
- $700 (for 7 days) due on August 15 or $1000 (for 10 days) due on August 15
- $600 (for 7 days) due on November 1 or $900 (for 10 days) due on November 1.

Each crew will also be responsible for all other costs, including provisioning, meals ashore, and travel to/from Road Town.

Associated Travel. The two standard ways to get to/from Tortola are:

- Fly in and out of the Tortola airport (EIS) on Beef Island, and take a taxi (about $20) to Road Town; OR
- Fly in and out of St. Thomas, USVI (STT), and take a ferry from Charlotte Amalie to Road Town. One must pay attention to the limited ferry schedule when booking flights.

Airfares will obviously depend on specific flight schedules, but it is reasonable to assume that it will be in the range of $500-$1000. Air/ferry/taxi travel to/from Road Town will be each traveler's individual responsibility, and SOS will NOT be involved.

I'm ready to sign up! What should I do? Download the application form and waiver form from the SOS website (login as a member, and find the form under the 2018 BVI Bareboat Trip tab under Bareboat Cruising), fill it in, and mail it with your $500 deposit check to coordinator Doug Gage ASAP.

All About Travel

Beth Dumesco found out she has an article published in PropTalk (the Spin Sheet for power boaters). The article is on paddle crafts. She hopes that people who take kayaks and SUPs out on their boats will take a look at it. Things have changed a lot now that paddle crafts are the fastest growing part of the marine market.

Carole Lowry sold her home in NJ and she and Gil Eaton bought a lovely home together in Newark, Delaware. Getting rid of "stuff" accumulated over 30 years in one home has been an ordeal. Now, over a year later, they are still unpacking more than 10,000 CDs, LPs and other music paraphernalia. They celebrated Gil's 70th birthday this year with several close friends and family who came from Denver, Chicago, DC and Sarasota to cheer him over the hump. They were not able to do the cruises with Gil's boat last year and again this year as they spend time restoring Dream Catcher. Carole more than made up for it with several day sails on Scalawag, a fast moving and pure fun 25' O'Day.

Laura Gwinn, Carole Jordan, John Dombach helped take Martha Wagner's boat from Kent Island to its new home at Willsboro, NY, on Lake Champlain. They left Kent Island on June 15, reaching Lake Champlain June 28. Their route took them down Delaware Bay to Lewes, then a straight run to NYC, arriving in the harbor at rush hour. The number of ferries and barges that they dodged kept all crew busy acting as lookouts. During the run up New Jersey coast, they saw a large pod of dolphins - probably 20 or more. The highlight though was seeing a whale (or maybe two) breaching multiple times. They overnighted in Jersey City, from where Carole and Laura took a ferry to NYC and visited the 9/11 memorial. During the trip up the Hudson River, they visited with new friends, saw West Point, saw a fawn swimming in the River, and dodged barges. At Catskill, NY, the mast was taken down to allow them to enter the locks between Hudson River and Lake Champlain (lots of low bridges). A total of 12 locks were transited. Just as they really got their rhythm in how to negotiate the locks going up, it changed and they had to figure out the locks going down (yes, there is a difference!). Arriving in Lake

Champlain was entering another world; the trees are different. There are lots of mountains on both sides once the Lake opens up, and the temperatures require wearing long pants and long sleeves. But the low humidity, blue skies, and scenery made for a delightful trip. They and the club will certainly miss Martha, especially her optimism and caring.

Jim Huber kept a 11 year promise to attend a wedding in Australia for a young girl who sailed with him from Australia to South Africa.

Lorraine Panaccio and Peter Breit took time off from sailing and visited Peter's brothers and family in Vienna, Austria for 17 days in May and June.

They also visited Munich, sightseeing and beer drinking at the Hofbrauhaus. They spent a few days with family in Salzburg, Austria, climbed the castle, and saw Mozart's and Trapp Family (from Sound of Music) house, and a concert at the Cathedral Dom. They drove through the lake region of the Austrian Alps and visited the ancient town of Hallstatt where salt was mined, a great commodity way back then.

In Vienna, they visited baroque churches, museums, and Imperial castles. Their boat is named after the Belvedere castle, now a Klimt museum. They listened to a Mozart concert and a mass with the Vienna Boys Choir chorus. Ate too much wiener schnitzel, goulash and of course rich pastries. But they also took a hiking trip up a mountain (Alt. 6000+ feet) with a gear driven mountain train doing the first part. Then off to Venice, from Italy through the southern Alps.

They enjoyed a gondola ride through the canals, visited St. Mark's Cathedral, Murano and Burano islands by water-bus where they watched the glass blowers. Amazing artists! Learned a new fashionable drink, Spritz Venetian version. Bubbly Prosecco, Aperol (an orange-based aperitif) were topped with sparkling water.

They drove to Lago de Garda, the largest lake in Italy in the Dolomites region of the Alps. On the way visited Padua (St. Anthony Cathedral) and Verona where Lorraine waved from the Julia balcony. They headed north through the mountains along the lake to their last stop, Innsbruck back in Austria. This old city totally surrounded by high mountains hosted the Winter Olympics twice. Again they took a Gear train and then two cable cars up the mountain and then Lorraine hiked the rest to Alt. 3000+ meters. The weather was perfect and they had a grand old time traveling through their old stomping grounds.

Sandy Rosswork and Dennis Krizek are going to Colorado in August. They'll be in the town of Frisco, at 9000 ft in Summit County. Doing some hiking, biking, and enjoying the low humidity and cooler mountain air. In midsummer, the high meadows will be carpeted with wild flowers. A nice change of pace!

Jeff Davis and Barb Peterson got married last week and spent the July 4th holiday in Ocean City dog sitting in exchange for a condo on the beach. In July, they are off to Alaska to visit with Barb's daughter and grand-daughter who live in Alaska. When they return, they will go to Maine to visit some friends from when they live in Florida during the winter. They also bought a house in Mt. Dora Florida and will be moving the RV north - not sure where now but they are looking at different areas.

George Hollendursky and Shirley Brooks-Hollendursky will travel to Columbia, SC in August to view the total solar eclipse. The only total eclipses that have happened in the last 40 years in the USA were 1979 (seen only in the northwest part of the country) and 1991 (Hawaii only.) That's why this one is called "The Great American Eclipse".

Louis de Guise has not officially left the great sailing of the Chesapeake area but he sold his 31' sloop Celebration partnership to spend his future summers in the panhandle of Idaho. The small town of Sandpoint, located on the lake Pend d'Oreille, offers great summer weather with no humidity and no bugs. It's been named by the NYT one of the best small towns in America. While spending his winter months abroad, Louis who has been an SOS member for 12 years, will still sail with the club in the fall and spring.

From Barb O'Brien and Alex Doyle. I am always proud to say I have been to Xi'an three times. Upon retiring from my teaching career, I wanted to give back to life and began my love affair with Global Volunteers in Xi'an. My first volunteering job was teaching conversational English in a Chinese primary school, with Mingming, my Chinese assistant. And, too soon, I had to leave those cheery little faces in their classrooms, and their teacher too. Mingming and I emailed to each other weekly for nine years. Who wouldn't want a good friend from half way around the world?

The years rolled on, but always I held Global Volunteers in my heart, and with it, Xi'an and my friend Mingming.

For eight years, I had touted the joys of teaching English in China, of the wonderful experience of Global Volunteers programs. Aha, I found a friend, Alex Doyle, who wanted to join me, and we signed up for September 2016.

When I returned, we were a small team of three, assigned to the Xi'an Biomedical Technical College teaching 140 college students who were in their early years of learning English. With the student teaching, we also had an English teacher present to translate as needed. The teachers' dedication and enthusiasm for their students would have inspired anyone. However, often I had some difficulty understanding their pronunciations as well, but they were constantly questioning and eager to learn and improve...to help their own students.

Gracious to a fault, they invited our team to a family celebration of the Mid-Autumn Festival, second largest holiday of the year. We helped to clean chives for the dumplings, which we then learned to make. As we waited for them to steam, we learned to play Mahjong, enjoying 5 games. I didn't win, but Alex won twice.

China unfolded its mysteries for us in Xi'an, like new, delicious dishes with sauces and seasonings unknown before.

On our one day "off" we were guided to the Terra Cotta Warriors Museum. It was a fascinating glimpse into Chinese history!

As we packed our luggage for returning to America again, we realized we have a home here too, in Xi'an... a family of teachers and students, who have welcomed us, taught us, and given to us more than ever we brought to their classrooms.

We see the great significance of our Global Volunteers service in Xi'an, for we have formed bonds, and have brought joy and love to each other. We shall always hold each other in minds and hearts, hands joined across the many 7000 miles, bridging them for all to benefit. We leave a large part of our hearts in Xi'an. How better can I explain?

Anne Bastian's new best place this year was UTAH!! Land of Sandstone and withering heights and deep canyons. Led by two Sierra Club volunteers, Anne and eight other women of varying ages rafted two days on the Colorado and Green rivers, and hiked five to eight miles for two days in Arches National Park and Canyonlands Park in eastern Utah for a week in late May. She learned a lot about stamina, which she learned the others had more than she, but the "sweep" person kept her going! They saw cryptobiotic crust, desert varnish, mormon tea, slickrock, sandstone, petroglyphs, pictographs, lots of canyons, arches among awe inspiring vistas. This area is called the high desert and they had gorgeous weather and 8% humidity!! She definitely recommends you add this area to your bucket list!!

Ben Kaufman had a catastrophic mast step failure while sailing on the Anniversary Cruise. He was able to get the boat back to his marina only to find out over the next several days the boat was beyond repair. He ended up selling Caracol for salvage, ending his career as an SOS Skipper. Ben has sailed as a skipper for 27 years with SOS, also serving as a Raft Captain. We will miss seeing him behind the wheel of that beautiful Sabre and look forward to having him crew on other SOS boats..

New Member Highlight

Michael Kuhn grew up in the Midwest where he had a few experiences on small sailboats. After living in Michigan, Ohio, Texas and Pennsylvania he moved to Delaware four years ago. Mike spotted a listing on Meet Up for an SOS Happy Hour in DE which he attended. There he met and talked with skipper Chuck Fort who wet his appetite for sailing the Chesapeake Bay.

Michael joined the club in January and his first sail was to the DNR on Valkyrie. By the end of the weekend skipper Sandy Rosswork signed his paperwork passing him on Basic Skills 1. Mike also sailed on the Anniversary Cruise and a Dockside Training Day Sail. He is now ready to complete Basic Skills 2.

In addition to sailing, Michael enjoys the camaraderie and socializing SOS is known for. He was quite visible on the dance floors at both the DNR and Anniversary Parties. However, the crowning moment for him came while on the helm of Teri Lyn with skipper Ron Pence where Michael successfully guided the boat through a tack and jibe maneuver!

Michael loves dancing, live music, gardening, biking, hiking, and fixing things. He is the proud father of three terrific sons!
